COL. LISCUM WITH MANY OTHER AMERICANS SLAIN BY CHINESE IN BATTLE AT TIEN TSIN.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The Navy Department this morning received confirmation from Admiral Remy of the reverse of the allied forces at Tien Tsin on the morning of July 13th. The dispatch is dated Chefoo, July 16th, and says:

"Reported that all allied forces attacked native city morning of 13th, Russians right, with Ninth Infantry and marines on the left. Losses allied forces large, Russians, 100, including artillery Colonel; Americans over 30; British over 40, Japanese, 58, including Colonel; French, 25.

"COLONEL LISCUM, Ninth Infantry, killed, also CAPTAIN DAVIS, Marine Corps. Captain Lealy, Lieutenants Butler and Leonard wounded.

"At 7 o'clock evening, allied attack on native city was repulsed with great loss. Returns yet incomplete. Details not yet confirmed.

"REMEY."

CHINESE FIGHT WITH DESPERATE VALOR.

LONDON, July 16.—The Evening News prints a dispatch dated at Shanghai today giving a detailed account of the attack of the allied forces on the native city of Tien Tsin, as reported in the dispatch to the Associated Press dated Tien Tsin, July 13, via Chefoo, July 15 and Shanghai July 16.

According to the Evening News dispatch, the allies were repulsed and compelled to retreat with a loss of more than a hundred killed, the British losing forty and Japanese sixty. The Americans and Russians, it is added, also suffered heavily. Among the Americans killed were COLONEL FRENCH of the Twenty-fifth Infantry and COLONEL LISCUM, of the Ninth Infantry. A Russian Colonel of artillery was also killed.

The dispatch adds that the Chinese fought with great desperation and their marksmanship was accurate and deadly.

COL. LISCUM, COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN FORCES, KILLED AT TIEN TSIN

OUR TROOPS TO BE RUSHED TO CHINA.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Secretary Hay called a Cabinet Council this morning to consider the Chinese situation. Few Cabinet officers are in this city, and the only ones present were Secretaries Hay, Root and Long.

The Cabinet Council lasted some time, and the Chinese situation was thoroughly discussed. In all probability the President will come here within the next two or three days to remain a day or two.

There is reason to believe that 8,000 or 10,000 troops will be gotten together as rapidly as possible and hurried to China. Some of these probably will be taken from Cuba.

If the situation requires more men Congress will have to be called together to provide for them.

DISASTROUS ATTACK OF THE ALLIED TROOPS.

Copyrighted 1900 by the Associated Press.

TIEN TSIN, July 13, (via Chefoo, July 15 and Shanghai, July 16).—At 2 o'clock this afternoon 7,000 of the allied troops were attempting to storm the wall of the city. The attack began at daylight. Its success is doubtful. The Chinese on the walls are estimated conservatively at 20,000. They are pouring a terrific hail of artillery, rifle and machine gun fire upon the attackers. The Americans, Japanese, British and French troops are attacking from the west and the Russians from the east.

The Americans suffered terribly. As the Associated Press representative left the field the chief surgeon of the Ninth Infantry said a conservative estimate was that twenty-five per cent of the Americans were hit.

Colonel Emerson H. Liscum is reported to have been mortally wounded as he was walking in front of the troops. MAJOR REGAL and CAPTAINS BUCKMILLER, WILCOX and NOYES are among the wounded.

The marines' losses included CAPTAIN DAVIS, killed and BUTLER, LEONARD and several others wounded.

Officers declared that it was hotter than Santiago. When the correspondent left the Americans were lying in the plain between the wall and the river, under an enfilading and direct fire. It was equally difficult for them to advance or retire. The correspondent counted 300 wounded men of all nationalities.

The officers of the United States Marine Corps mentioned in the foregoing dispatch are probably Captain Austin R. Davis, recently at Manila, killed and first Lieutenant Smedley D. Butler, of the U. S. S. Newark, and First Lieutenant Henry Leonard, recently on duty at Cavite, and also of the Newark, wounded.

REVENGE FOR THE AWFUL BUTCHERY IS EUROPE'S CRY.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire

LONDON, July 16.—"Revenge today, mourning tomorrow," is practically the universal cry of Europe, but it is sorrowfully admitted that there can be no revenge today, nor perhaps for many to-morrow, for the incredible barbarities that are reported to have marked the last scenes within the Legations at Peking. Nothing is clearer than that the anti-foreign conflagration is rapidly permeating even hitherto quiescent provinces, and though it is recognized that every day which leaves Peking in the power of the mob increases the peril and difficulties of the situation, nothing comes from the diplomats of Europe to show that the powers have overcome the jealousies resulting in general impotency, to which is commonly ascribed the sacrifice of the handful of women, children and men comprising the international colony in Peking.

ray of light extricable from the Peking message appears to be the statement that Ching and his followers did their utmost in defense of the Legations. The rebels, however, are evidently greatly in the majority, and the few loyalists are helpless before the hordes who have joined and are daily joining the blood-stained Camarilla who have usurped authority in Peking.

The fate of the capital appears to threaten other towns like Tien Tsin, Chefoo and even Shanghai. The defeat of the allied forces at Tien Tsin seems to place that town in desperate straits, and if retreat to Taku is necessitated other observers consider that it will be likely to decide the policy of wavering Viceroy.

The departure of Admiral Seymour from Tien Tsin and the movement of warships toward Shan Hai Kuan on the Gulf of Liao Tung are taken to indicate that this route may be adopted for an advance on Peking, which is distant 170 miles from Shan Hai Kuan.

The officials at the Chinese Legation this morning still assert that they have no information concerning the fate of the foreigners in Peking.

The Foreign Office today issued a dispatch from General Dordard dated Tien Tsin, July 15th, which adds to the previous information. The Chinese, according to this dispatch, attacked the station the morning of July 13th and were repulsed after four hours' hard fighting in which 500 of the enemy were killed.

On July 15th General Dordard, commanding a force of 350 Americans, 350 British and 400 Russians, and General Fushikima, commanding 500 Japanese, attacked the Chinese and captured their provisions southeast of the city, killed ninety-five and captured four guns. The Japanese and Americans subsequently rushed and took the western arsenal.

General Dordard adds that the day's honors rested with the Americans and Japanese. There were no casualties among the Americans or the Russians.

Ineffectual attempts have been made to conceal the horrible fact that Admiral Seymour was compelled to shoot his own wounded during the recent disastrous retreat of the Peking relief expedition.

All the wounded and prisoners who fell into the hands of the Chinese were fully tortured.

The bodies of two marines who were captured by the Chinese were recovered. The bodies had been cut into pieces. First, the eyes had been hacked out; then the cheeks, arms and legs cut off, until death ended the sufferings of the poor fellows.

When Admiral Seymour in his retreat found himself so hard pressed that he was unable longer to carry his wounded with him, he asked them: "Which do you prefer, to be left to the mercies of the Chinese or be shot by your own comrades?"

As Admiral Seymour put the question the tears were running down his cheeks. "We prefer death to torture. Shoot us now, that we may die like men," was the piteous response of the helpless men.

A firing squad was told off, while the little allied force stopped and beat off with gun fire the Chinese horde that surrounded it, inside its lines an act of mercy was performed as the firing squad carried out its orders.

The British and American forces are

AN OUTSIDE OPINION. A Popular San Francisco Paper Laughs at Our City Council.

(From Saturday's Town Talk.)
Oakland's Freak Council. They have a gay and astute lot of councilmen over in Oakland. Oakland officials have frequently added to the gaiety of nations, but I don't think that such an aggregation of fatuous functionaries as the Oakland City Council was ever encountered off the burlesque stage. They are reformers too, and some of their reforms are as freakish as the efforts of the Sheriff at Nottingham to capture Robin Hood. But it was in doing the demagogic act, with the water company as a foil, that they showed themselves in a halo of red fire. Under the law it is the duty of the Council to ascertain the valuation of the company's plant which shall serve as a basis for fixing rates. But did the trans-bay reformers employ experts and engineers to enlighten them as to valuation? Certainly not; they guessed at the valuation, fixed rates in a haphazard way, and then boasted gleefully how they had swatted the hated monopoly without even giving it a hearing. A clever reporter interviewed the spectacular reformers, and they joyfully told him that they had cut the rates without making an investigation to obtain a basis for rates. So eager were they to embrace the opportunity to get their names into print that they signed statements which were a confession of their ignorance and which will undoubtedly invalidate the water order.

Their Shameful Confessions.—When I saw the confessions of these guileless officials I wondered whether the people of Oakland went to the Home for Feeble Minded in search of Councilmen. Of course the water company protested. Corporations always murmur when anybody interferes with their flow of revenue. The company applied for an injunction and filed an affidavit in support thereof containing the statements of the Councilmen. These statements are now records of the court, and may be accepted as eloquent evidence of the malfeasance of a gang of incompetents. "Of course to fix water rates as they should be fixed," said Councilman Taylor, "we should hear from expert accountants and competent engineers." To do it with any degree of intelligence we should have a competent engineer, said Meese, and such was the burden of all of their statements, but Girdard added that "on general principles" he favored a cut of fifty per cent. It appears that the Oakland reformers work on general principles. It would probably be well to kick them out of office on general principles.
